Frieze London | Booth F29
October 9–13, 2024

STARS is delighted to present new oil paintings by Chicago-based artist Danny Bredar (b. 1992) that address the nature of individuality. Each painting represents an individual figure who emits their emotion, integrity and freedom amidst a network of tree branches. Bredar's signature nuance and sensitivity, in mind and mark, come together to deliver moments of insight at the threshold of experience.
