

Charlotte Edey
Frieze London
Booth F3
9 - 13 October

For Frieze London 2024, Ginny on Frederick is pleased to present a solo presentation of works by Charlotte Edey, titled Thin Places. Navigating spaces simultaneously bodily, psychological and architectural, the works in Thin Places posit interior and exterior worlds as permeable, imagined landscapes with no clear delineation between the body and mind, selves and others, and objects and sites. Comprising of a series of beaded tapestries and drawings, the presentation takes the form of a domestic interior with the threshold marked by soft carpeting and two stained glass windows in a nod to the codes of the nineteenth century literary space.

Edey's works move between soft pastels and tapestries that incorporate silk embroidery and beadwork. Sewing freshwater pearls and glass beads throughout, Edey has populated the works with symbols - clocks, webs, pins, moons, windows - that become allegories of psychological states, where memory, time and the self merge. Light and shadow function as psychological and narrative metaphors for both the unknowable and the certain, alongside a consistent conversation between the internal and external. Interiors and rooms evolve into emotive structures, reflecting on the architecture of the body as it reconciles with its environment. Textiles and drawing are merged within fragmented frames for the first time - oscillating between mediums ultimately dissolves the distinction between these two material languages to articulate the shifting historical, spiritual and environmental realms that shape the plurality of identity.

Recent solo and group presentations include: All Words are Written in Water, Anat Ebgi, Los Angeles, CA (2023); Reading Stones, Linseed Projects, Shanghai, China (2023); Body Poetics, Giant Art Gallery, Bournemouth, UK (2023); The Inexpressible Is Contained, Sea View, Los Angeles, CA (2023); framework, Ginny on Frederick, London, UK (2023); Eternal Reverie, 1969 Gallery, New York, USA (2023); Stillwater, Roberts Gallery, Glasgow, UK (2022); Bloomberg New Contemporaries, South London Gallery, London, UK (2023); New Mythologies II, Huxley Parlour, London, UK (2022); Body en Thrall, Rugby Art Museum, Rugby, UK (2022); Psychic Anemone, Cob Gallery, London, UK (2021); Abracadabra, Ginny on Frederick at Alma Zevi, London, UK (2021); From Cellar to Garret, South Parade, London, UK (2021); Transatlantico, MANA Contemporary, Jersey City, USA (2020); Echolocation, Public Gallery, London, UK (2019) and The Great Women Artists, Palazzo Monti, Italy (2019).
